THE FASHUN CLUB

The FLAME fashion club this year has been organising various events that are not only inclusive but also has made a fashion statement among all the student of FLAME University. We have promoted a fashion culture and have been successful in standing out and entertaining the audience in the most exciting manner.

FASHUN CLUB EVENTS

Freshers 2022

UG 1 Students were welcomed with a huge party and were asked to dress up with the best attire that matches their vibe.

Fashion Team Introduction

The official fashion team comprising of 38 models were introduced to the students in the form of a fashion show.

Inter-house Competition

In collaboration with the cultural committee, the 4 houses competed against each other to win the title of the most fashionable house.

FASHION CLUB: A LONG JOURNEY

The fashion club plans to organise various other events in the future that releases only serotonin in our students. Our main aim is to teach the learnings of various aspects of fashion and provide an experience that is memorable and fun. We will be helping students build their skills and maybe even a portfolio that might guide the students in making their way into the industry.

FINANCE AND INVESTMENT CLUB

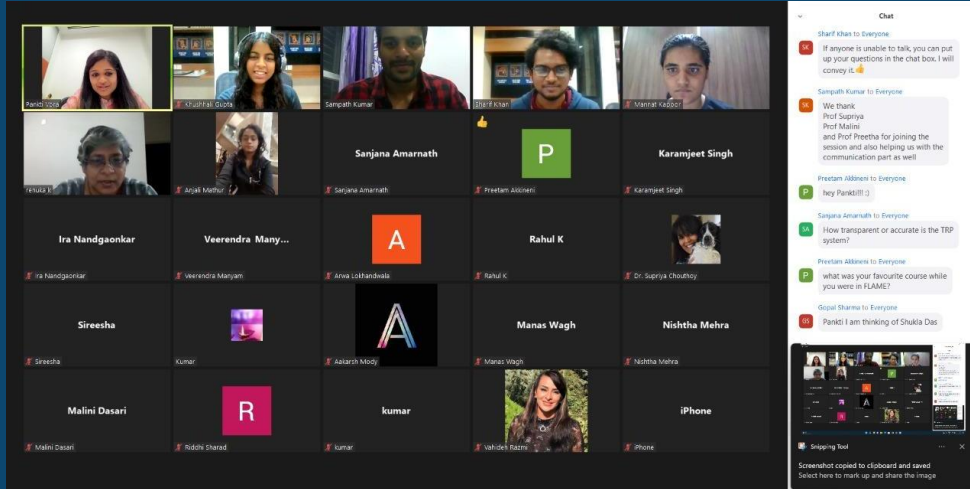

First Event!

Exclusive screening of the film “Middle Class Love” at Cinepolis Pune. The event was sponsored by the film director Mrs. Ratna Sinha and her film production house.

With a strength of 100 students the event was a huge success, especially on a logistical basis.

Apart from this we conducted our first collaboration with FLAME on board and The Round Table. A fun movie trivia night.

In conversation with FLAME Alumni, Ms. Pankti Vora, we were able to gain a thorough understanding of the inside out functioning of the TV industry in India.

We are currently working with the Alumni Relations for potential workshops by our alumni who are currently working in the film and media industry.

27th October 2022

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE 22-23

THE CORE COMMITTEE 22-23

In this chilly weather, we have a spooky haunted house coming up which will definitely give everyone there chills. Naqaab also has a Theatre Workshop coming up by a Flame Alumni this month.

Not only this, but we also have 9 Jakhoo Hill coming up, where our actors will be putting on a great show.

Along with ReVamp It, Interhouse and a Musical Production, Naqaab has many more exciting events in store!

We kick started the year with with some Introductory meets with the EC and CC with fun interactive activities that were planned for our club members.

In August, we held the auditions for our musical production, "The Third Bell".

Together with the other clubs, we hosted the Talent Night in September.

LET'S TALK OFFENCE!

The Philosophy Club's first event of the year, 'Deconstructing Offence' covered the A-Z of offence from topics like cancel culture to the history of systemic discrimination.

Tensions were high, conversation was free-flowing, and members of the club effectively contributed to establish an intellectually stimulating and fun environment facilitated by a guided safe space.

20th September 2022

Interhouse Debate

27th October

CHK001 & CHK101

6:30PM - 8:00PM

The Philosophy Club's collaboration with The Debate Society was an exciting event exploring various questions concerning ethics, morality, and existentialism.

Questions like "Are humans intrinsically good or bad?" and "Would it be ethical to kill baby Hitler?" were debated as we navigated different streams of thought and ideologies within the discipline of philosophy.

27th October 2022

FLAME PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

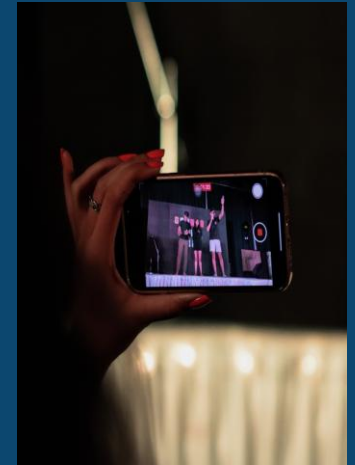

CAPTURE (PHOTOGRAPHY COMPETITION):

FPC had its first event as a photography competition for all. Participants had an hour to photograph the theme 'dichotomy' throughout the campus. Rashmi Navelkar Ma'am was invited as an external judge for the competition. A prize distribution was held for the winners with the support of Razmi Ma'am.

TALENT NIGHT:

Talent night is one of the most exciting events for UG1s. FPC made sure that memories of their first ever talent night at flame were seamlessly captured and delivered.

FLAME PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

BOLLYWOOD NIGHT PHOTOBOOTH

FPC collaborated with dance club on 3rd november, and set up a photo booth for all.

HALLOWEEN NIGHT

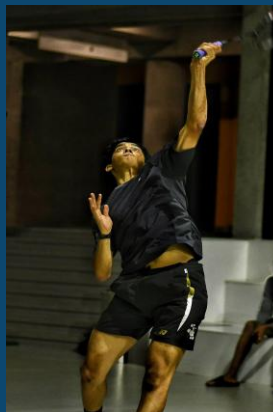

FPC organised a photo booth on Halloween night and documented the event, on 31st October.

SPACE WEEK:

FPC collaborated with astronomy club on 9th October by conducting a photobooth and documented the event.

FPC X BADMINTON CLUB:

FPC collaborated with badminton club on 19th October and documented the inter-college competition, an important event for FLAME.

FLAME PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

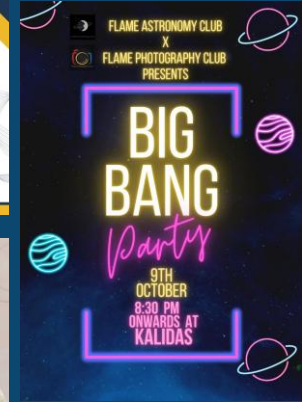

ZUMBA CLUB X FPC

FPC documented the Zumba workshop on 8th October in collaboration with the zumba club. With a large crowd having loved the experience, FPC captured and delivered it for them.

VOLLEYBALL CLUB X FPC

FPC collaborated with the volleyball club and documented the inter-college competition.

Along with encouraging students towards photography and providing meaningful opportunities, FPC has been capturing the memories and experiences at FLAME. More importantly these are always made accessible to all. The goal is to support talent and capture moments.

QSA: THE COLLECTIVE

GAY-PARDY NIGHT, october 6th

On October 6th, The Queer Collective held its first event 'Gay-pardy', a queer themed quiz night inspired by the popular American game show 'Jeopardy'. Donned in attire resembling an array of pride flags, the participants competed against each other's knowledge of queer trivia.

QSA : THE COLLECTIVE

The quiz was followed by a special surprise signing of a large progressive pride flag by all the constituents of The Queer Collective, as a way to memorialize that every member is a part of our community - our "collective" - along with their diverse and unique identities and lived experiences.
