ABOUT THE CLUB

Naqaab is Flame's Theatre club that aims to give students a place to express their enthusiasm for theatre and their interest in it. The club doesn't discriminate and is open to anyone who loves theatre, regardless of their experience or background.

It offers a welcoming environment where those with a passion for theatre can connect with like-minded people and learn new skills to develop their passion for the performing arts.

Members have the opportunity to improve their talents through competitions, meetups, workshops, and productions.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE (EC)

The Executive Committee consists of members who handle the overall committee. On a day-to-day basis, they overlook the entire committee's heads and members. They are in charge of running club events and its workings. The EC consists of the President (Siddha Murada), Vice-president (Bhavya Sumrani), Secretary (Bhanu Pratap Singh Shekhawat) and Treasurer (Saksham Jain).

THE CORE COMMITTEE (CC)

The Core Committee consists of the CC heads and CC members. These are the members elected by the EC who would be in charge of particular aspects of club activities (like Content Creation & Video Editing, Logistics, Resources & Inventory and Social Media). These members would help them in the smooth running of the club and its events.

The heads of the core committee update the EC with the status of the work assigned to them. All the committee members act under the guidance and supervision of the EC members. This year the CC consists of 26 members.
