

FLAME Community Service Club for 2023-24

Minutes

The FLAME Community Service Club conducted elections to choose the club president for the academic year 2023-24 on the 21st of April, 2023. The nominees for the position of Club President were Dishita Swaika, Suhani Mathur, Sumiran Goel, and Suneesh Batabyal. A pitch by the nominees of their plans for the Club next year was followed. Suneesh Batabyal was elected to be the President of the club on a voting basis.

The voting was done in three rounds. The first round took place on 19th April, in the presence of the club's EC, faculty advisor, two nominees and the SAAC member. It resulted in a 4-way-tie with each candidate securing 25% votes. Following protocol, the SEC cultural committee head was invited to vote too. The candidates presented their pitches again on 21st April. The second round resulted in a tie for the top two candidates, each securing 33.3% of the votes. The final round of voting was conducted for only the top two candidates after which, securing a clear majority, Suneesh Batabyal was announced President.

The elections were held in the presence of the following members:

President's Note:

Suneesh has been the backbone of the club and it has been an absolute honor to watch him work and grow. He has been there, without fail, for every event – big or small. We all witnessed and were inspired by his enthusiasm and dedication towards the club. There is no doubt that under his leadership, the club will continue create a positive impact on the community and scale new heights. It is my privilege to announce that Suneesh will be heading the club for the upcoming academic year. I am truly excited to see what the future holds for him and our club.

Signing off,

Disha Pruthi

President
